8. Entrants will only be eligible for one Award. However, receipt of the Award does not prevent an entrant from applying for any other scholarship, bursary or award offered by the University or De Broc.
9. The University reserves the right, with reasonable cause, to exclude entrants and withhold from them the Award or any instalment of it for violating any of these Terms and Conditions and/or any other applicable University policies or terms and conditions.
10. The University's decision is final and binding on the entrants. No correspondence will be entered into.
11. Other than death or personal injury arising from the deliberate or negligent acts or omissions of the University or its employees, the University will not be liable for any loss or damage arising out of an entrant's enjoyment of the Award.
12. Acceptance of the Award will be deemed acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
13. The University reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions at any time. Any amendments will be published on the University's website.
14. The University reserves the right at any time to cancel, modify or supersede the Award if, in its sole discretion, the Award is not capable of being conducted as specified.
15. The University reserves the right to substitute for the Award an award of equal value in the event that circumstances beyond its control make this unavoidable.
16. Uses of personal data received by the University in the course of offering and operating the Award are subject to the data protection and privacy policy found on the University's website.
17. The University is The University of Law Limited (with company number: 7933838) whose registered office address is at Braboeuf Manor, St Catherines, Guildford, Surrey, GU3 1HA.
